V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement
1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims	1-18	YES
	Claims		NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims	1-18	YES
	Claims		NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims	1-18	YES
	Claims		NO

2. Citations and explanations1. PCT Article 33(2):

The present application claims a method for the C-C coupling of aromatic and heteroaromatic halogen compounds (claim 1), the production of the catalyst system (claim 8) and the polymers produced with the catalyst (claim 18).

D1 does not disclose the use of two different ligands in the method for C-C coupling. D2 likewise uses only one ligand - triphenylphosphine. D3 uses the complex in stoichiometric amounts and without reducing agents.

Consequently, the subject matter of claims 1-18 is novel.

2. PCT Article 33(3):

D1 is considered to be the closest prior art, because that method for C-C coupling includes all the technical features except one. The difference between the present application and D1 is the use of a different ligand system. The objective technical problem is therefore that of providing alternative methods for the C-C coupling of aromatic and heteroaromatic halogen compounds. Since the cited literature contains no hints that the special ligand system allows the coupling in high yields and the products obtained have a very low metal content, the subject matter of claims 1 -18 involves an inventive step.
